10,000 Men of Harvard

*Ten thousand men of Harvard want vict'ry today,
For they know that o'er old Ei
Fair Harvard holds sway.*

*So then we'll conquer old Ei's men,
And when the game ends, we'll sing again:
Ten thousand men of Harvard gained vict'ry today!*

*Oh, Radcliffe, thy girls assemble,
We'll always give thee homage true;
We are thy daughters loyal
In all thou wouldst have us do (rah, rah, rah).
We swing our banners proudly!
We hoist our emblems to the skies!
We cheer our alma mater,
We cheer our college great and wise!*

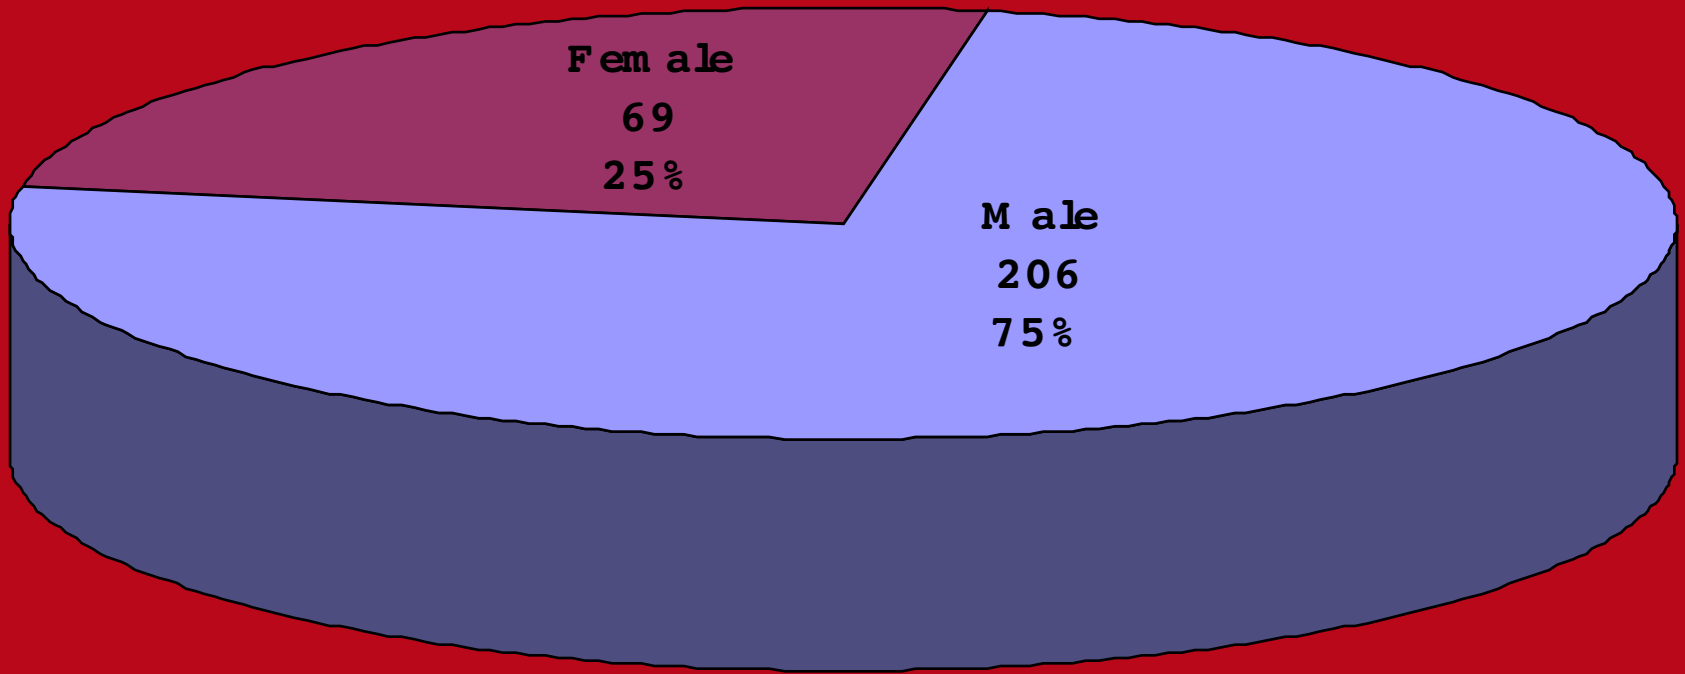

*Oh, Radcliffe, our alma mater
We sing your glories to the sun
We are your grateful daughters
Our voices raised as one
You gave us joys and wisdom
To set our goals and values true
Radcliffe, our alma mater
We pledge our loyalty to you.*

What About Growing Older Bothers You ?

Harvard- Radcliffe College Class of 1973
35th Reunion

What About Growing Older Bothers You ?

- I can't remember
- What a stupid question
- We are all going to look silly at “old fart” concerts
- Not being able to go back to college
- Time running out on projects I want to do
- Body weight, tired, graying hair, less energy
- In truth, I don't like old people.

What About Growing Older Bothers You ?

- Sad about indifference to improving the world while everyone is obsessed with dollars
- Closer to Death
- Gaining weight
- Less Sex, less Energy
- Sense of impending loss
- Potential dependency on others

What has been your greatest regret?

- Harvard
- Did not make more money
- Failing to wisely manage my own money
- No Children
- I should have been kinder to some people
- Ask me when I am about to croak

What has been your greatest regret?

- Not impacting my kid's lives more
- Not having enough time for friends and fun
- Not getting on board Climate Change sooner
- Not finding enough opportunity to live passionately
- Hey! I don't do regrets until after I am gone

What has been your greatest regret?

- Not listening to other view points
- Not challenging myself more
- Not having met more of us while we were there. I have subsequently met more classmates both at reunions and through other activities.
- Not enough sex
- Not keeping physically fit

What has been your greatest accomplishment?

- Survey # 1 choice: Kids!
- Persuading Democrats of my acquaintance that Republicans are not all evil
- I have transformed lives through teaching and caring
- Integrating all my passions into a life that is joyful, authentic and in service to myself and others

What has been your greatest accomplishment?

- Surviving cancer and a heart attack
- Getting into Harvard
- I hope I haven't achieved it yet
- Helping many people
- Trusting myself

What did you do at H- R that you are most proud of?

- #1: Graduated!
- #2: Deep friendships
- Won a foosball championship
- Emerged more educated and cultured, but with principles intact
- Passed the swimming test
- Graduated with honors from that cesspit of sexual harassment: the Gov. dept.

Describe yourself in a bumper sticker

- Jack of all trades, master of none
- Super Woman
- Dance on, dance on, dance on
- What kind of idiot uses a bumper sticker to describe himself?
- Still at bat

Describe yourself in a bumper sticker

- My other car is a zamboni
- Got beer?
- God bless the child who has his own
- Procrastinator on board
- She is getting older and better

With Crimson in triumph flashing

'Mid the strains of victory,

Poor Ei's hopes we are dashing

Into blue obscurity.

Resistless our team sweeps goalward

With the fury of the blast;

We'll fight for the name of Harvard

'Til the last white line is passed.

Harvard! Harvard! Harvard!
